Goswami Ganesh Dutt Sanatan Dharam (G.G.D.S.D.) College, Haryana, which was originally founded as Hindu National (H.N.) The College was relocated in Haryana with the explicit objective of satiating the thirst of the poor, depressed and backward people, esp. womenfolk of Haryana, and its surrounding 'Ilaqa' for the higher education.

Evidently, with the passage of time, the outlook of this institution has also changed. The college has as its new goal, envisaged the provision of quality education, general and vocational, to make it employment oriented, to develop the rational outlook of the students and to make them capable of catching with the fast-developing world.

The college is affiliated to Panjab University, Chandigarh for B.A. and B.Sc. (Non-Medical), B.Sc. The college Main Gate dedicated to the Diamond Jubilee of the college has been constructed and inaugurated and Seminar Hall has been updated with modern facilities.

The distinctive feature of the college is that it is situated at a convenient distance from the town and is away from the din, distraction and temptation of city. The very location of the college in the natural and rural setting engenders closer contact between the teacher and the taught and the simplicity of the place exerts wholesome influence in creating congenial atmosphere for co-education. Thus both the girl and boy students get their education in healthy surroundings and in the rural setting, enjoying the amenities of the town life as well.

Students are advised to park their cycle/scooters/cars in the cycle shed only. They should not place them on the road.

Discipline:

Whether inside or outside the college, every student is expected to look upon himself/herself as a custodian of the honour of the college and must conduct himself/herself in a way, worthy of the college.

The following would be considered gross breaches of discipline and would be severely dealt with:

- (i) Disorderly conduct, (ii) Talking or shouting in the class, (iii) Smoking in the college premises, (iv) Disfiguring of desks, walls or floors, (v) Damaging college property, (vi) Crossing college lawns at unspecified places, (vii) Bringing of outsiders with doubtful character to the college, (viii) Writing indecent and filthy remarks, (ix) Indulging in any rash or unbecoming behaviour, (x) Using unfair means in the exams, (xi) Tearing or tempering with notices on the Notice Board.

Behaviour in Lecture Hall and Functions :

1. Students should be punctual and be in their seats well before the time of the commencement of the lecture/function.
2. They should stand up when the Principal, the staff and the chief guest enter the hall and should take their seats after the V.I.P.'s have taken theirs.
3. They should sit quietly during the lecture, avoid gossiping, whispering and unnecessary clapping or indecent expression and leave the hall in an orderly manner after the Principal, the staff and chief guest have left.
4. If it is very necessary to leave the hall during the function, the students should do so quietly at the end of an item without causing any disturbance.

Students are expected to observe the above rules. The students found guilty of gross misconduct or breach of discipline shall be liable to a drastic punishment such as heavy fine, cancellation of admission, withdrawal of admission form for the University examination, expulsion or rustication from the college, and so on, depending upon the seriousness of the offence.

Notices:

1. Only very important notices concerning all students are circulated. For the rest, students are expected to look up at the college notice board daily. Omission to do so may land negligent students in distress. Ignorance as a result of such omission is indefensible.

2. Notices, put on the college notice boards, which do not bear the signatures of Principal/Member of the teaching staff, shall have no validity. It is a very serious offence to put up notices without proper authority. To remove, tear off or temper with the notices on the college notice board is a punishable offence.

Migration:

1. Migration of students from other colleges and vice-versa is governed by the University rules.
2. The migrated student must bring with him/her:
 - (a) Lecture attendance report.
 - (b) Statement of marks obtained in the Tests.
 - (c) Character certificate from the Principal of the college concerned.
3. Provisional admission to the college, pending the Migration Sanction of the University is permissible.
4. After the migration has been sanctioned and notified by the University, the student must join the second college within 15 days.
5. The first college is entitled to charge tuition fee for the month in which the migration has been sanctioned by the University. The second college is not entitled to tuition fee for the month or part thereof.
6. The Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to authorise the migration from one college to another.
7. No Migration Certificate can be issued unless the student is registered with the University.
8. Students who migrate to the college would be required to pay full annual charges irrespective of the fact that they had paid these in the previous college. Annual charges like fees and funds paid to the college are non-refundable.

Code of Ethics for Students

The institution aims at teaching its scholars high sense of character, mutual tolerance, personal discipline and loyalty to the nation, so that they may become true patriots and law-abiding citizens in their later life. To achieve this noble aim they will be required to impose on themselves voluntarily the following social and moral dictates-

1. Maintain perfect discipline in and outside the class-room. Attend all the college functions punctually and keeping perfect discipline throughout a function.
2. Be polite in dealing with one another, college employees and fellow passengers while travelling by a bus or train.
3. Accord full respect to your teachers and wish every teacher when you meet him/her for the first time in the morning.
4. Shift from one room to another in an orderly manner. Do not run or shout at one another. Do not rush into the room unless the class inside it has completely vacated the room.
5. Revise all your lessons daily at home and come prepared by reading the next day's chapter from the book. Do your home-work regularly and show it to the teacher.
6. Do not loiter about in the vacant periods. Read newspapers or general books in the library when you are free from the class work.
7. Smoking and drinking are strictly forbidden inside and outside the college campus. Do not fall into these bad habits.
8. Cleanliness should be observed at college as well as at home. The college property is your own. Therefore, do not spoil the walls or furniture by making marks on them. Pieces of paper etc. should be thrown into the rubbish bins.
9. Be peaceful with one another and do not pick up quarrels. However if any dispute arises, do not try to settle things by yourself. At once make a written report to the tutor incharge or the Principal who will investigate the matter and take suitable action against the offender.

10. Always form a queue when you want to meet the Principal or are paying your dues at the college office.
11. Do not take part in politics, rather conserve your energy and utilise it in reading, writing and other purposeful activities. No meeting without the permission of the Principal can be organised in the college campus.
12. Students should cultivate in their minds the spiritual values of life. "Enter to learn and leave to serve", should be their motto. Just as one Moon gives more light than all the stars and one Sun drives away the darkness from the space millions of times larger than itself, similarly one good student, whether he/she preaches or not by his/her very presence in the world sets in motion invisible good vibrations.
13. All the education received is reduced to nothing if it is not built on the foundations of a pure character. And the basic need of a student is but the formation of his/her character, which not only builds his/her own life, but also helps the nation to grow.
14. Each day of their life, should begin with a prayer to the Almighty to bestow upon them the strength to do their work honestly, earnestly and with dedication and devotion. They should have implicit belief that the blessings would bring peace and prosperity to them, as also the courage to face the challenges of life.
15. As per the order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP(C) No.24295/2000 Ragging in the educational institution is strictly prohibited. If any incident of ragging comes to the notice of authority, the concerned student shall be given liberty to explain and if his explanation is not found satisfactory, the authority would expel the student from the institution.
