

Scholarships, Stipends and Fees Concession in GGDSD College, Haryana.

The University, Government, Military, Scheduled Caste and Backward Class Scholarships are tenable at the College. Merit and National Scholarships offered by the Central and State government for poor and brilliant students are also available.

Scholarships under the Government of India Post Matric Scholarship Scheme are available to Scheduled Castes/Tribes students who belong to Punjab i.e. permanently settled in Punjab State and are pursuing their Post-Matriculation studies. The prescribed application forms and entitlement cards which such students should or are required to submit can be obtained free of cost from the college office as well as from the office of the District Welfare Officer concerned. The students should submit the application forms and entitlement cards to the college office along with their admission application for onward transmission to the Director of Public Instructions (College) Punjab.

In addition to these, fee-concession and stipends will be awarded to the students on their merit. The students belonging to the SC & Backward Classes are advised to join the college at the earliest possible, as they are entitled to get their scholarships from the very date of their joining the college.

N.B.-Stipends for OBC & SC students are sanctioned from the date of joining.

OBC/SC students are advised to get a counter signature of Deputy Commissioner or GA to DC on their original certificates.
